Why Japan, Why Now

Japan's Workforce Crisis Is Your Opportunity

Japan's aging population has created a critical skilled labor shortage. The government's response: the Specified Skilled Worker (SSW) Visa — a direct, legal pathway for international talent to fill the gap.

Legally Equal Pay

Same salary as Japanese nationals — guaranteed by law

No Degree Needed

Skill test + basic Japanese = work permit approved

PR Pathway

SSW Type 2 opens family sponsorship & permanent residency

Equal Pay, By Law

Japanese law strictly prohibits paying SSW visa holders less than Japanese nationals. Underpayment isn't a policy violation — it's a criminal offense.

₹1.5L

Monthly Minimum

Legally guaranteed starting salary

₹2.5L

Earning Ceiling

Plus overtime & performance bonuses

Eligibility Requirements

No Degree Needed — Just 2 Requirements

Unlike corporate visas, the SSW visa is built around practical capability — not academic credentials.

Pass basic Japanese + your sector's competency test — and you're legally eligible, regardless of education.

First Visa to Permanent Residency

The SSW visa is a structured long-term career path — not a short-term contract. Each stage unlocks new rights, higher pay, and deeper family security.

- ❑ SSW Type 2 puts you on a direct government-recognized track to Japanese Permanent Residency — no cap on stay duration.
